

Script 2: We built this because we got sick of $1,500 agency bills

Tentpole · Launch 1:00

FORMAT	Founder to camera, fast cuts, kinetic
USE FOR	launch post, pinned tweet, video ad

[HOOK — 0:00-0:05] To camera, deadpan, then smirk. Every creator has been ripped off by an agency at least once.

[STORY — 0:05-0:22] To camera, slight head shake. Mine was fifteen hundred dollars. Seven days of waiting. They gave me six clips. Two of them had the wrong intro. One was... just a thumbnail. That's the moment I knew — if this is what fifteen hundred dollars buys, the industry is broken. [B-ROLL: receipt, calendar days crossing off, "deliverables" folder]

[REVEAL — 0:22-0:45] Energy up, lean in. So we built RelatiV. Paste a YouTube link. Three minutes later — three taste-selected clips that actually go viral. Not AI slop. Not auto-clips. The ones a good editor would pick — in three percent of the time. [B-ROLL: URL paste, three clips dropping, dashboard stats]

[CTA — 0:45-1:00] Direct, still. Early access opens this week. First one hundred creators get lifetime pricing. Link in bio. Paste a link. See what you get. [TEXT OVERLAY: "Early access · 100 creators · lifetime"]
